Aegeanale' profile

Aegeanale is an international platform of art and culture created in 2012. Its fundamental goals is to highlight the Aegean as region of inspiration, creativity and intercultural dialogue as also to map once more, the archipelago as a complex of destinations with cultural interest.

Aegeanale's program is constructed upon two different focus points:

The first focus point concerns a series of international artistic projects from the contemporary art scene, which travels in several locations of the Aegean Sea, constructing tourist routes of cultural interest.

The second focus point concerns a visual arts residency program in several islands of the Aegean, transforming the region to a unique "open-air gallery".

The summer of 2013 has been selected as the starting point of the first strategic initiative while the residency program is scheduled to be inaugurated within the period spring-summer of 2014.

Aegeanale's Vision

Aegeanale, through its program and its multi-sectoral partnerships with Greek and international collaborators, attempts to create a dynamic network in order to foster cultural tourism throughout the Aegean.

Aegeanale's vision is to offer essential opportunities for the promotion of the uniqueness and the potentials of the archipelago, which features extraordinary circumstances for inspiration, creativity and intercultural dialogue.

In a manner of speaking, Aegeanale aims to trigger a new form of mobility throughout the Aegean Sea which will have as a starting point art and culture.
